CAUTION

On September 1, 2015, at approximately 11:19 a.m., two armed suspects entered the Arizona Federal Credit Union located at 5485 Northern Avenue in Glendale, Arizona. As Suspect 1 reached the lobby area, he fired a gunshot into the ceiling and yelled for everyone to get down on the floor. He then vaulted the teller counter, demanded money from the tellers, and opened the cash drawers himself. Suspect 2 remained on the customer side of the teller counter and handed Suspect 1 a plastic bag for the money. Both suspects fled the bank to a silver Dodge in the parking lot (that may have been occupied by a third suspect) and headed eastbound on Northern Avenue. The vehicle was found on fire a few blocks away.
